End defamation of cultural manager and art historian Sladana Petrović Varagić

Mr Milan Božić, Major of Požega,, and Mrs Zorica Mitrović, President of Assembly

The EU working group on human rights violations in the arts, Arts, Rights, Justice, has recently learned about the latest defamation of the cultural manager and art historian Sladana Petrović Varagić. ARJ has been in touch with Mrs. Petrović Varagić since summer 2017.

Based on 89 e) of the UN report on the right to freedom of Artistic expression and creativity, A/HRC/23/34 of 2013, we would like to express our concern. This article reads: “(e) States should abide by their obligation to protect Artists and all persons participating in Artistic activities or dissemination of Artistic expressions and creations from violence by third parties. States should de-escalate tensions when these arise, maintain the rule of law and protect Artistic freedoms.”

The public defamation against Sladana Petrović Varagić, then director of the Požega Cultural Center, by the Mayor of Požega, Mr Milan Božić, began in 2015. At the same time, the directors of three other public institutions in Požega, the Public Library Požega, the Center for Social Work, and Spot's Objects, were equally urged to resign. None of them being a member of the ruling, or the coalition party. Unlike her peers, Mrs. Petrović Varagić had earned her position through an open call and could not be legally dismissed before her 4-year contract ended. So the Law of Culture in Serbia. After unsuccessful attempts to pressure her to resign, the Managing Board proposed the dismissal of Sladana Petrović Varagić from the position of the manager of the Požega Cultural Center on February 4, 2016. In a 90 minute “discussion” by the local parliament, Mrs. Petrović Varagić’s work and person were shamed. No legal grounds were found for her dismissal other than that she had not claimed tax refunds for her organisation. Which is not an act against the law.

Sladana Petrović Varagić filed a lawsuit to the Higher Court in Užice against the Požega Municipality for an unlawful dismissal before the mandate completion. The first instance verdict was in favor of Sladana Petrović Varagić. Then the Municipality of Požega filed an appeal and the proceedings were continued at the Appellation Court in Kragujevac. The dismissal was declared unlawful again. However, the Court of Appeal dismissed paragraph 2 of the first instance verdict and stated that the court was not competent to decide on the return of Mrs. Sladana Petrović Varagić to the position of director of the Požega Cultural Center, but that it was the task of the employer to decide.

In April 2016 Mrs. Sladana Petrović Varagić submitted the Request to the Supreme Cassation Court in Belgrade for the review of the sentence by the Appellate Court regarding the item 2 to bring back the director to her post. In the meantime, she has been downgraded to the position of a curator of the City gallery.

In November 2017, the Požega Cultural Centre was liquidated, and her position as a curator of the City gallery was abolished. Still the local authorities would continue to pursue her public defamation. The latest attack on Sladana Petrović Varagić took place on February 6, 2018, after local citizens started daily protests against the plan of the local authorities to use public funds to buy an illegally built and overpriced building for the newly planned Sport-Cultural Center. This property is in the possession of the family of the President of Assembly, Mrs Zorica Mitrović. In order to draw the public attention away from the scandal, Mrs Zorica Mitrović reportedly accused Sladana Petrović Varagić during a TV interview on the local TV station of thievery. She claimed that Mrs. Petrović Varagić had misused the budget of the Požega Cultural Centre for acquisitions for its art collection during her directorship. Mrs. Zorica Mitrović showed photos of art works (paintings) which indeed were bought for the collection of the Cultural Centre Požega but by the Ministry of Culture and Information RS and on the base of the Ministry’s open call for new acquisitions. Mrs. Mitrović also announced the preparation of an exhibition featuring all “undesirable artworks,” an exhibition, which, she said, will be called "what was left of an unfortunate woman” referring to Mrs. Petrović Varagić.

Arts Rights Justice has reported this case to the office of the United Nations Special Rapporteur on Cultural Rights in 2017, and will continue to document its development to further see Mrs. Petrović Varagić’s rights protected.

Arts Rights Justice and its members will keep observing the arts freedom situation in Serbia. In 2017 alone, 5 cases of arts freedom violations and defamation have been reported to us.

The continued defamation of Mrs. Sladjana Petrović Varagić’s personal and professional standing, and the various attempts to silence her, are in violation of international human rights laws.

We value Serbia’s interest in the protection of human rights in the arts, and, along with the undersigned Artists and supporters of Artistic freedom in Serbia and internationally, we are confident that the Mayor of Požega, Mr Milan Božić, and all local authority officers, will do everything they can to immediately and unconditionally stop the public defamations and private pressures against Sladana Petrović Varagić.

Thank you for your attention to this urgent matter. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

ARTS RIGHTS JUSTICE EUROPE
